

ANNIE MEEHAN

Dynamic Strength Taught With Grace, Grit, & A Whole Lot of Humor

Annie Meehan brings decades of entrepreneurial success, high-impact stories, and action-filled programming to teams and audiences around the world.

With more than two decades of professional speaking experience, seven award-winning books, and a story like no other, Annie offers a new perspective on resilience and reinvention - both necessities in today's ever-changing world.

Speaking and consulting with business leaders is second nature to Annie; as a multipreneur she knows firsthand the value of having a strong team. And the number one way to hold on to top talent is to invest in them, personally and professionally. As humans, we are capable of growing into new levels of accomplishment and success. So why stop here? Why settle for less than we can achieve?

To put it simply, we're not going to settle, and when your audience hears Annie speak, they're not going to either. Audience members will leave feeling rejuvenated and inspired to strive for more with insights into communication, innovation, creativity, and leadership. Where there's a will, there's Annie Meehan, showing you the way.

“Annie recently presented to our team of 60+ Career Planners, Intake Specialists, Area Managers, and Administration staff. Her message was perfect - uplifting and encouraging; just what we needed! The feedback from our staff has been great. Even people who are usually skeptical about motivational speakers were impressed and engaged. Thanks, Annie, for helping us celebrate our team and remembering to be pineapples!”
